

Standard Patterns and Standard Fashions

We want you to know that no pattern is better cut, more reliable or easier to understand than Standard Fashions. Standard Fashions are pretty, up to date, yet simple.

STANDARD FASHION BOOK FOR FALL

When you want your next Standard Pattern buy a copy of the Standard Fashion Book. It costs only 20c and you get your pattern FREE.

PERRY & CAMP.

Telephone 255-A. 71 and 75 Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

COUCH COVERS AND CURTAINS

Such another assortment as ours of attractive and dependable Couch Covers and dainty fresh Draperies at prices within reach of everyone—cannot be found in this locality.

We aimed solely at perfection in gathering these new stocks—those first what would be satisfying to our store friends who depend on us to supply them with goods of this character.

If you are looking for something exclusive in Couch Covers or Draperies, that cost no more than the open patterns, our lines should appeal to you.

High Chairs and Cribs

When you buy, secure substantial, well-made ones that will stand the racket through many a siege. Not long ago the ancient wooden ark of a Rothschild crib sold for $100 at auction. Wonderful! A clumsy old article at that price, when for only $6.50 the Hooker store can offer a beauty. And good enough to hold an American king or queen. Come, see them.

B. W. HOOKER & CO.,

UNDERTAKERS FUNERAL DIRECTORS LICENSED EMBALMERS
HOSPITAL AMBULANCE SERVICE — ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO TELEPHONE 87-11. ALSO ORANGE COUNTY PHONE.

SECOND

ANNUAL WATCH SALE

Nickel or Gun Metal cases. Each watch perfect in workmanship and material and sold under a guarantee. Not a toy but a real watch, handsome and good enough for every day use. Just the thing for vacation, school or shop. Get the boy one, its value will surprise you.

Special Sale

Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, your choice, while they last, at

93 Cents

Double votes will be given on all watches sold that day. See them in our window. Remember a written warranty with each watch.

RED CROSS PHARMACY,

160 North Main St.

The Exclusive Member of the Pure Drug Association. Incorporated

An Advertisement in the Times Will Bring Sure Results.

Remember We Are Headquarters

for the finest Ice Cream in any quantity.
The highest grade Milk, Cream, Butter and Eggs.
Our Cold Buttermilk is a popular drink.

Dairy L. B. DODGE Creamery
300 North Main Street, Barre, Vermont. Tel. 233-3.

We take great pride in carrying a nice line of

Chamber Suits AND ODD DRESSERS

Suits of Plain, Golden and Quartered Oak, Red Birch and Mahogany finish.

Prices from $20.00 to $48.00

Ten-piece Suits, $24.00

The above Dresser at—

$8.25

All others of as equally good value.

M. J. WHITCOMB
East Barre - Vermont

UNDERTAKER

TALK OF THE TOWN

Abbott is showing a nice line of the new fall suits.

S. E. McCay of Rutland passed Sunday in the city.

See big auction sale ad, page 7. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

Alexander Anderson visited friends in Burlington yesterday.

Bert Wallace of Northfield was a visitor in the city over Sunday.

Mrs. Charles LeClair went to Underhill to-day for a visit with relatives.

Miss Mabel Mazzoni went to Beverly, Mass., to-day for a visit with friends.

A son was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark at Edgewood.

Miss Bernice Holmes left this morning for Highgate, where she will spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parkman of Rome, N. Y., are visiting at James Anderson's, 7 B street.

If it is a suit made to your measure, the Frank McWhorter company is showing all the new things.

Fordey Williams of Manchester, N. H., has been spending several days in the city on business.

Merritt Stow, a registered pharmacist from Middlebury, began work this morning in the Columbus pharmacy.

Miss Mary Curless returned Saturday to her home in Concord, N. H., after spending several days in the city.

Democratic caucuses to nominate a candidate for representative in city court room Monday evening, August 22.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Earlight returned yesterday to their home in Rome, N. Y., after visiting friends in the city.

David Sickle, who has been confined to his home on Mount street for the past two weeks, is now able to be out.

A special meeting of Winnetta council, No. 10, D. of P. I. O. R. M., this evening at 7 o'clock for degree practice.

James Segel, who has been visiting at the home of his sons, H. A. and S. J. Segel, returned to-day to his home in Burlington.

Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Poole returned to-day to their camp at Fairlee lake. They will start Thursday to drive back to Worcester, Mass.

H. H. Besette and George Benoit have returned to their homes in Brockton, Mass., after spending several days in the city on business.

We have some special loads of Winchester shotgun and rifle cartridges. You should have some of these for your hunting trip. Eastman Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. Oris Kellogg and son, Arthur, returned Saturday to their home in Hildesford, Me., after spending several days with relatives in the city.

F. E. Wyman and son, Everett, of Brattleboro arrived last night for a visit to the former's mother and sister, Mrs. Laura Wyman and Mrs. O. H. Silver.

Fred King of this city and nephew, Rufus King of New York, left this afternoon for Rouses Point, N. Y., where they expect to remain for a few days.

Miss Nettie Martin, who has been visiting the past two weeks at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. B. B. Hawes, returned to-day to her home in Holyoke, Mass.

Rev. A. C. Gilmore, who conducted services in the Church of the Good Shepherd at Westerville yesterday, returned to-day to his home in Randolph.

Rev. Richard H. Bosworth of Wood Haven, N. Y., is visiting George B. Bosworth in Berlin. Rev. Mr. Bosworth preached at Berlin yesterday and will again next Sunday.

George Mackay, George Grant, Robert Mackie, Alex. Stratton, Misses Lena McDonald, Bernice Sanders, Violet Grant, Zilpha Churchill and Mrs. Sanders returned this morning from a week's camping at Highgate Springs.

The funeral of Thelma Madeline, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Hutchins, whose death occurred Saturday morning at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hutchins of east Hill, was held Sunday at three o'clock, Rev. L. K. Ayer officiating. The burial took place in Maplewood cemetery.

Sunday arrivals at hotel Otis were as follows: R. D. Spaulding, Boston; H. K. Seasey, Haverhill, Mass.; A. D. Foster, Hardwick; E. W. Spaulding, Troy, N. Y.; W. T. Rollins, Buffalo, N. Y.; J. A. Sawyer, Woodsville, N. H.; C. F. Jennings, New York City; A. L. Wallace, Bangor, Me.; Edward Austin, Albany; D. S. Eldridge, Buffalo, N. Y.; T. W. Hinkley, White River Junction; Mazie King, Erie, N. Y.; King, New York City.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Baptist church will hold a lawn social at the home of Mrs. Frank Cragg, 121 Hill street, Tuesday evening, Aug. 23. Be sure and keep this evening open and come and see the Pansy class give its exhibition of Indian club drill. They gave the exhibition in the church early this summer, and all who saw the drill were well pleased and spoke highly of their exercises. Don't miss seeing them drill in the open. Everybody welcome. Ice cream will be served.

George M. Emerson, who has been employed for the last three years as billing clerk and as cashier in the local Central Vermont freight depot, has received an appointment as agent of the station in Montville, Conn., on the southern division of the Central Vermont. Mr. Emerson expects to leave to-morrow night for his new position. His family will remain here until fall before joining him. Mr. Emerson's many friends will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

Jesse R. Smith, one of the brakemen who was injured in the Central Vermont wreck at Northfield Falls, was formerly employed in this city as yardmaster for the Barre railroad, and is well known to the train crews in both the Barre railroad and Central Vermont yards. He had been yardmaster here for eleven months before he left here a year ago last January to work for the C. V. Before he was yardmaster, he worked here as brakeman for a year.

Sunday and Monday arrivals at the city hotel follow: W. A. DeBorja, H. H. Moore, Boston; Anna J. Kenneron, Claremont, N. H.; J. J. Bell, Boston; F. H. Mann, Woodsville, N. H.; J. E. Miles, Burlington; W. E. Otis, Boston; J. B. Beauregard, Springfield, Mass.; Henry Rosner, New York City; J. J. Marikham, Groton; E. Ony, Fitchburg, Mass.; C. J. Sawyer, Boston; S. L. Jacobs, Boston; Y. L. Clark, Burlington; Thomas Ryan, Richmond; W. W. Park, South Ruxton.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

New gingham at Abbott's.

Remnant sale at Vaughan's.

The celebrated Alpha Portland cement is sold by the N. D. Phelps company.

The Democratic caucus to nominate a candidate for city representative will be held in the city court room Monday evening, Aug. 22, at 7:30 o'clock.

A regular meeting of the Barre branch of the B. C. I. A. of A. will be held in Miles' hall, on a routine regular dell'Unione degli Scalpellini (branch of Barre) avra' luogo nella sala di Miles, on Monday evening, Aug. 22, at seven o'clock. Election of officers. A. M. Smith, secretary.

CHELSEA.

Fred L. Pray went last week to Vershire village, where he has rented a shop and gone to blacksmithing.

Miss Carrie Florida of Minneapolis, Minn., came to town to spend a few days in town and is the guest of Mary J. George on Court street.

John Z. Sprague of Manchester, N. H., with his family, is in town and stopping for a time at the home of Houston S. Fitts, on the Randolph road.

Amos B. Wright and wife went last week to Lebanon, N. H., to visit friends, and if they find a place to suit them there, may buy and locate there.

Horace Willey, who recently finished work in the bobbin shop, left last week, accompanied by his mother and sister, for Montreal, Can., to visit friends.

Miss Beatrice Granger, who has been the guest of Miss Annie Sleeper at Mrs. Abbie Sleeper's on North Main street, left for her home in Boston, Saturday morning.

Miss Vera, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fred L. Beckwith, went last week to Hamilton, Mass., where she will be the guest for short time of Rev. and Mrs. George E. Lake.

State Auditor Horace F. Graham of Craftsbury and his deputy, Dewey T. Haney of Montpelier, were in town Friday to audit the accounts of the county clerk for the June term of court.

N. A. Cleveland of Leonidas, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Dexter and daughter, also of Leonidas, and Henry Cleveland of Fitchburg, Mass., were in town last week and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Hunt.

After a ten days' visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Allen, Fred E. Allen left Friday for Barnet to resume his labors with the Roy Brothers, for whom he has worked for the past three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Goodwin and son, Merin, left Saturday morning on a two weeks' vacation, during which they will visit friends in Nashua, N. H., Fitchburg, Lowell and some other Massachusetts cities.

William Gilleland, who has been boarding during the summer with Mrs. Ruth Kennedy, is boarding, during her absence from town on a visit to her sister, at Don T. McAllister's, on the Washington stage road.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Vancor, who have been in town for several weeks, during which time they have been at Burr Kent's, left Saturday for Brattleboro, where Mr. Vancor expects to find employment at his trade as a barber.

Mrs. Mary Tracy has gone to Crescent Beach, Conn., where she will be the guest of D. Carleton of Hartford, Conn., a member of the firm of Williams & Carleton, with whom her son, Joseph A. Tracy, has employment.

Wayne B. Tracy, who has been visiting friends and renewing old acquaintances in town, after an absence of twenty years, left for his home in Bradford, Penn., Friday. During his stay here he was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Roxanna Jones.

Deputy county clerk W. H. Sprague was in Montpelier, Friday, to arrange for the printing of the ballots of the state and county candidate for office, to be used throughout the county at the September election. The contract goes to the Capital City press of Montpelier.

The ladies of the Ten Pin club will hold a sale of fancy article at the town hall Wednesday evening. These sales in the past have always been popular and as the proceeds of their sales is always used for some worthy object, they are certainly entitled to liberal patronage.

Mrs. Stewart Robson and her daughter, Miss Gladys Stearns, who have been the guests of the former's aunts, Misses Martha and Nancie Ball, for the past week, have returned to their home in Springfield, Mass. Mrs. Robson was a daughter of the late Curtis Hall, who was a native of Chelsea.

At the Republican caucus, held at the town hall Saturday afternoon, there was a good attendance and the justices of the peace who have served during the past two years were re-nominated, and Ernest A. Corwin was nominated as a candidate to represent the town in the legislature this fall. The names of several other good and able men had been casually mentioned to represent the town this fall, but Mr. Corwin's name was the only one presented at the caucus, and the Republicans have every reason to feel that, in all matters to come before the legislature, he will stand for the best interests of his constituency.

EAST BARRE.

The woman's auxiliary will meet with Mrs. E. L. Blanchard Tuesday afternoon at 2:30.

Social dance at the opera house hall, Thursday evening, August 23, Riley's orchestra. Dancing from 8 until 2. Excellent musical effects. Admission 75 cents. Ladies free.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED.

WANTED AT ONCE—Two fishers and one rougher. Apply to The D. B. L. Granite Co., East Barre, Vt.

LOST—A neck chain. Will find please leave at Red Cross Pharmacy.

LOST—String of gold beads with gold locket. Having little "M. L. H." Enquirer please return to Dr. Hudson, Miles building, Barre.

WANTED—Quick, one 20-horse power G. E. or Westinghouse electric motor, 40-cycle, 220 volts, speed about 800 R. P. M. and one 10-horse power motor, same kind, speed 750 or 850 R. P. M. Must be in first-class condition. Cash and full description to the Leland Company, Barre, Vt.

WANTED—Kitchen girl and chamber maid wanted at the Bessum house, Bethel, Vt.

WANTED—To buy old junk, rubbers and iron, also wanted to buy second hand furniture of all kinds and all kinds of stoves. The highest prices paid. Inquiries to J. F. Pine, 45 Maple Ave., Barre, Vt. 24-12. 125-24

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

Values Worth Looking Up

Only a few days more and such values as we are now offering in Summer Goods will be closed out. Each day now sees some good values cleaned up. The prices we make on Ladies' Wool Suits and Coats are surely money savers for the trade. We make these prices to clean up stock before the Fall lines come in.

Suits at One Half Price

We have a few Summer Suits left, to close at one half price. These are good styles and good values at the regular price, but are Suits we cannot duplicate and we want the room for the fall stock which is fast coming into the department.

When you can buy a good-styled Suit for $15.00 that is worth $30.00, it will pay you to invest your money.

Nearly all of these Colored Suits in the $25.00, $20.00 and $15.00 grades left, are what, if we could duplicate, would be as good as we could buy for the fall stock, but as we cannot, they go at one half price.

At one half price are a lot of Ladies' Colored and White Linen and itep Suits in medium and small sizes. These are extra values and you have two months yet to wear them.

Coats at One Half Price

What we have left in Long Coats in the light and dark colors, are now on one rack to close at one half price.

At $6.00 are a few long Covert Coats in medium sizes. These are Coats that are all right for fall wear, and are a good style. Are Coats that were $12.00.

At $5.00 is a good value in a Blue Serge Coat. Was $10.00.

At $7.50 are a couple of good values in medium size Coats in blue. Were $15.00.

At $10.00 are two heavy Serge Coats. Are a good fall style and a good value at the regular price—$20.00.

At one half price are what we have left in Ladies' Long Silk Coats. Here are some good values that will pay you to buy for another season.

There are also a few Black Panama Coats to close in the lot.

Ladies' Cotton Dresses

Our summer dresses must go into this half-price sale. Here are a few muslin, lawn and polarized cloths that were made up in the season's best styles and were good values. If you can get your size, you can afford to buy for next season.

This means that you can get a whole dress at less than the material would cost.

At $2.75 is a fine light-colored Muslin Dress that sold at $5.50.

At $2.38 are a few Lawn Dresses that were our best sellers at $4.75.

At $2.50 are a few small sizes in a plain colored polarized Dress. These are guaranteed fast colors. Were $5.00.

At one half price are what we have left in ladies' two-piece gingham and percale Dresses. There are also a few plain black Dresses at one half price.

The Daylight Store

COL. G. W. DOTY DEAD.

Prominent Man of Morrisville and G. A. R. Member.

Morrisville, Aug. 22.—Col. George W. Doty died at his home Saturday morning at six o'clock after an illness of about four weeks. The cause of his death was paralysis and a general breakdown.

Mr. Doty was born in Montpelier 72 years ago and when a lad was adopted by Osie Metcalf of this town. Some years of his early life were passed on the western frontier. He served during the Civil war, having enlisted from this town with a creditable record.

On his return to Morrisville he engaged in various occupations, for several years conducting a livery business and serving two terms of sheriff. Mr. Doty entered the furniture and undertaking business 25 years ago. He was one of the oldest business men in town.

During that time he had conducted 2,000 funerals. Mr. Doty was commander of James M. Warner post, G. A. R., and in 1892 was department commander. He had served the town in various offices and the village corporation. He was a member of Mount Vernon lodge, F. & A. M.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2:00 p. m., at the home, Rev. C. C. St. Claire officiating. Besides his wife, Mr. Doty is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Anna Jones of Morrisville, and Mrs. Walter D. Grout of Worcester, Mass., and one grandson, Walter Jones of Morrisville.

There are pirates in Hongkong—not the usual kind that greet the gentle stranger with an expansive smile and take what he has for worthless rubbish, nor yet the petty thieves that go by that name on our own water fronts, but the real old fashioned, murderous kind, who count not the victims as they reckon the spoils.

Of course they do not swagger in costume, as all real pirates should, or ply their trade in Hongkong's immediate waters, but among the thousands of fishermen, stevedores and coal handlers that crowd the harbor's edge they mingle and gossip water front news, knowing well when a particularly rich cargo is due from the interior.

And in the purple twilight a junk darts out of one of the many estuaries far up the West or Pearl river and swoops with the suddenness of a hawk on the heavily laden prize. The struggle is short. Over the hills on the naked backs of a swarming crew the loot disappears forever from a smoking hulk in the rice swamps, or, as happened in the case of the Salaman, half a hundred take passage in the crowded hold of a river steamer and when the band of unsuspecting whites gather at dinner raise a heathenish yell on the startled air, and the ship is taken.

Rifles thrust through booted doors subdue the pitiful fire that lasts a little while from behind the shot room tablecloth, but the ship is already headed for the bank by the quartermaster with a rifle at his ear, and one more tragedy is added to the long list of crimes on the Sinking—W. J. Aylward in Harper's Magazine.

GOOD GOODS AND LOW PRICES

KEEP US BUSY

Nice, large, mealy Sweet Potatoes, six pounds for 25c.

Three pounds of good Cookies for 25c.

Three loaves of C. H. Cross & Son's Jersey Cream Bread for 25c.

Are you using Oleomargarine? We have it at only 20c and 25c per pound. It is much cheaper than butter and is nearly as good.

Are you buying your Meats where they are handled in a sanitary manner? Our Meats are kept covered and protected from dust and flies and every one's hands.

If you are particular, we can please you.

Special Price on Sweet Corn for Saturday.

"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"

SMITH & CUMINGS
Department Food Store
Phone 400; if that line is busy call 401

Save Money by Buying SHOES

at The Reliable Shoe Store

We carry a full line of new, stylish Shoes and Rubbers for all members of the family.

New line of Men's and Women's Hosiery.

We do repairing. Store closes at 5:30, except Mondays and Saturdays. Repair shop (entrance on Seminary street) open until 8 p. m.

JOHN BERINATO, Prop.

PIRATES OF HONGKONG.

They Are the Real Old Fashioned Bloodthirsty Kind.

There are pirates in Hongkong—not the usual kind that greet the gentle stranger with an expansive smile and take what he has for worthless rubbish, nor yet the petty thieves that go by that name on our own water fronts, but the real old fashioned, murderous kind, who count not the victims as they reckon the spoils.

Of course they do not swagger in costume, as all real pirates should, or ply their trade in Hongkong's immediate waters, but among the thousands of fishermen, stevedores and coal handlers that crowd the harbor's edge they mingle and gossip water front news, knowing well when a particularly rich cargo is due from the interior.

And in the purple twilight a junk darts out of one of the many estuaries far up the West or Pearl river and swoops with the suddenness of a hawk on the heavily laden prize. The struggle is short. Over the hills on the naked backs of a swarming crew the loot disappears forever from a smoking hulk in the rice swamps, or, as happened in the case of the Salaman, half a hundred take passage in the crowded hold of a river steamer and when the band of unsuspecting whites gather at dinner raise a heathenish yell on the startled air, and the ship is taken.

Rifles thrust through booted doors subdue the pitiful fire that lasts a little while from behind the shot room tablecloth, but the ship is already headed for the bank by the quartermaster with a rifle at his ear, and one more tragedy is added to the long list of crimes on the Sinking—W. J. Aylward in Harper's Magazine.

There are pirates in Hongkong—not the usual kind that greet the gentle stranger with an expansive smile and take what he has for worthless rubbish, nor yet the petty thieves that go by that name on our own water fronts, but the real old fashioned, murderous kind, who count not the victims as they reckon the spoils.

Of course they do not swagger in costume, as all real pirates should, or ply their trade in Hongkong's immediate waters, but among the thousands of fishermen, stevedores and coal handlers that crowd the harbor's edge they mingle and gossip water front news, knowing well when a particularly rich cargo is due from the interior.

And in the purple twilight a junk darts out of one of the many estuaries far up the West or Pearl river and swoops with the suddenness of a hawk on the heavily laden prize. The struggle is short. Over the hills on the naked backs of a swarming crew the loot disappears forever from a smoking hulk in the rice swamps, or, as happened in the case of the Salaman, half a hundred take passage in the crowded hold of a river steamer and when the band of unsuspecting whites gather at dinner raise a heathenish yell on the startled air, and the ship is taken.

Rifles thrust through booted doors subdue the pitiful fire that lasts a little while from behind the shot room tablecloth, but the ship is already headed for the bank by the quartermaster with a rifle at his ear, and one more tragedy is added to the long list of crimes on the Sinking—W. J. Aylward in Harper's Magazine.

There are pirates in Hongkong—not the usual kind that greet the gentle stranger with an expansive smile and take what he has for worthless rubbish, nor yet the petty thieves that go by that name on our own water fronts, but the real old fashioned, murderous kind, who count not the victims as they reckon the spoils.

Of course they do not swagger in costume, as all real pirates should, or ply their trade in Hongkong's immediate waters, but among the thousands of fishermen, stevedores and coal handlers that crowd the harbor's edge they mingle and gossip water front news, knowing well when a particularly rich cargo is due from the interior.